

I am a final year student of R.G.R Siddhanthi College of education affiliated to Osmania University. My overall experience of learning in this institution has been amazing. During my course I found all the staff members and principal of the college to be very helpful, supportive and professional which made me complete the course with ease. I really enjoyed studying the course and gained necessary knowledge to advance my career.

Sibasmita Panda