

We entered the college as students and came out as professionals. And through out this journey our Principal Ma'am and all our lecturers guided, motivated and encouraged us every step of the way to bring out the best in us and to reach the high standards set by the college. This has been one of the best learning experiences of my life

- R. Sanghamitra